PLAYERS CODE OF CONDUCT

Players are encouraged to:

Recognise and appreciate the efforts made by coaches, parents, match officials and administrators in providing the opportunity for them to play the game and enjoy the rugby environment.

Recognise that every player mini, junior or senior has a right to expect their involvement in rugby to be safe and free from all types of abuse.

Understand that if an individual or group of players' mini, junior or senior feel that they are not being treated in a manner that is acceptable, then they have the right to voice their concern either at the rugby club or outside of the game.

Players should:

Play because they want to do so, not to please coaches or parents.

Remember that skill development, fun and enjoyment are the most important parts of the game.

Be attentive at all training and coaching sessions.

Work equally hard for themselves and their team both will then benefit.

Recognise good play by all players on their team and by their opponents.

Be gracious in victory and defeat.

Play to the laws and spirit of the game and accept, without question, all referees decisions.

Control their emotions, verbal and physical abuse of team mates, opponents, or match officials is not acceptable.

Treat all players, as they themselves would like to be treated. They must not interfere with, bully or take advantage of any player.

Treat equipment with respect and respect the facilities provided.

Show respect to coaches, referees, team mates, supporters and parents/guardians at all times.
